THE HUNGRY SIX

United Societies, So-called, Endorsed Thompson for Mayor Against Sweitzer, Insuring Saloon Closing, Safe for Cermak.

But the Majority of the Democrats of Chicago Will Nominate John Patrick Gibbons for Sheriff.

The Hungry Six are happy. They see more jobs in sight. The Hungry Six are sometimes called the United Societies. They are on every battle front except the European one.

That is, they are in every battle front at home where there is a pay roll job to be fought for. This time they are not all moving for office themselves.

They are supporting Tony Cermak for sheriff.

They point with pride to the fact that they endorsed Thompson for mayor, and that Cermak's ward gave Thompson nearly 4,000 majority over Sweitzer.

But that is not going to prevent the Democrats from beating Cermak for the nomination for sheriff.

The Democrats are going to nominate John Patrick Gibbons for that office.

Everybody knows who Gibbons is.

That is why he is so popular.

John Patrick Gibbons, the allied Democracy candidate for sheriff of Cook county, was born October 6, 1879, in the city of Chicago. He attended the public schools of the city and subsequently graduated from the De La Salle Institute. Mr. Gibbons at present is a member of the Chicago Board of Trade, having spent 22 years in the grain business.

In 1912 Mr. Gibbons was appointed chief state grain inspector by Edward F. Dunne, then governor of this state. He discharged the duties of this important office with great credit for a period of four years, breaking all records for inspecting and handling more grain than ever in the history of the department. Active, clean, aggressive and honest. Mr. Gibbons has always been a dominant character in Democratic party affairs, fighting always the autocrats who have used party politics for the acquisition of personal gain and power.

Mr. Gibbons resides with his wife and two children at 4933 Michigan avenue.

Mr. Gibbons goes before the public as a candidate for this office as an American at a time when true Americanism is the real issue.

CERMAK'S WARD TOSSED SWEITZER

John Patrick Gibbons is going to be nominated for Sheriff by the Democrats.

He is popular with all Democrats. Tony Cermak, who is opposed to him, has always been popular with the Cermak party.

His followers are for Cermak only, if figures count for anything. Six years ago when Cermak was a candidate for bailiff of the Municipal Court, his ward, the Twelfth, cast the following vote:

Cermak, Dem.	5,785
Kinsella, Rep.	1,415
Louck, Prog.	984

Cermak's plurality..... 4,370 When Sweitzer, who is now a running mate of Mr. Cermak on the primary ticket, was a candidate for mayor in 1915, Cermak's ward, the Twelfth, returned the following vote on election day:

Thompson, Rep.	9,157
Sweitzer, Dem.	5,264

Thompson's plurality..... 3,993

Oh, how they did throw it into Sweitzer in Cermak's ward. That is the reason so many of Sweitzer's friends and admirers are going to vote for John Patrick Gibbons for the Democratic nomination for sheriff on primary day—September 11.

GIBBONS WILL WIN OVER CERMAK

Tony Cermak looks like a sure loser at the coming primary for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff.

This view is based upon the poor showing he made at the primary in 1912, before his United Societies label became shop worn.

He was running at that time for the nomination for Chief Bailiff of the Municipal Court.

Backed by a powerful organization he only polled 47,000 votes for the nomination out of 83,821 votes cast at the primary.

In other words if the Democrats opposed to his nomination had united on one man Cermak would have been beaten by 36,494 votes.

Here are the figures on the primary vote for the nomination for Chief Bailiff of the Municipal Court in 1912:

Anton J. Cermak	47,327
John M. Collins	11,446
Joseph Grein	13,905
James M. Slatery	19,632
J. Frank Murphy	4,381
John P. Gibbons	28,263
Joseph L. Kelly	6,194

This time Tony has organized opposition and a big hearted, big brained and popular man running against him for the nomination for Sheriff in John P. Gibbons.

C. B. WILLEY TO LEAD CASTERS

C. B. Willey was elected president of the National Association of Scientific Angling Clubs at the closing business of the convention at Hotel Sherman. The convention, which is represented by delegates from all parts of the United States, held its casting tournament several days ago in Washington Park. The officers chosen at the annual election are:

President, C. B. Willey, Chicago; first vice president, J. S. Schwinn, Newark, N. J.; second vice president, C. D. Vell, Minneapolis, Minn.; third vice president, W. C. Green, Cincinnati, O.; fourth vice president, Paul W. Shattuck, San Francisco, Cal.; secretary, F. J. Lane, Chicago; treasurer, E. M. Town, Chicago.

NOMINATE MALONE

William H. Malone should be nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the Seventh District. He is able, eloquent, forceful and wide awake, and will give the district the sort of representation it is entitled to.

VOTE FOR DAILEY

Popular Sanitary Trustee Should Be Nominated for President of the Board and Re-Nominated for Trustee by the Democrats.

James M. Dailey who has made a magnificent record as chairman of the Finance Committee of the Sanitary District of Chicago should be renominated by the Democrats for Trustee and nominated for President of the Board at the coming Primary September 11. The law requires that the President of the Board be also a

DURSO IN THE 29TH

Popular Young Democrat Will Win Nomination for State Representative.

Backed by Judges, Business Men and Patriotic Citizens.

John R. Durso, popular young Democrat, who was born, raised and educated in the Twenty-ninth Senatorial district, and who knows the wants of all of its residents, is a strong candidate for the Democratic nomination for State Representative.

He will be nominated and elected. Mr. Durso has the backing of the best people living in the district, judges, business men and patriotic citizens generally. Judge William Pennington Cooper is a great admirer of Mr. Durso. He tells a story illustrating Mr. Durso's inborn honesty of the time when Durso, then a bailiff in Judge Cooper's court, found a $6,000 necklace and never rested easy until he had returned it to its rightful owner.

VOTE FOR EARL O'NEILL

Earl O'Neill should be nominated by the Republicans for member of the Board of Review. Mr. O'Neill is known to everybody as a popular and successful Board of Trade man, is Republican candidate for nomination,

THE TAX MUDDLE

Greedy Anxiety to Handle Boulevard Link Money Said to Be Responsible for Bad Mixup.

Tax Payers Can Get Neither Bills Nor Receipts From the City Collector's Office for Specials

The muddle over special assessment taxes is unprecedented.

It is said that greed caused by desire to handle the Boulevard Link Millions promoted the passage of the law making specials payable to the city instead of the county collector.

city collector's office they were told they would have to pay their special assessments at the city hall.

Many taxpayers getting this information went to the city hall the last week in July to pay their special assessments.

They were told there that they would have to go back to the county treasurer or county collector to pay them.

They went back and were again sent to the city hall.

This confusion has continued since August 1st.

Taxpayers are denied an opportunity to get their bills made out even.

RINGER'S FRIENDS ORGANIZE

As a result of a meeting of real estate men at the roof garden of the Hotel La Salle a few days ago to promote the candidacy of Perkins B. Bass for Board of Review, and Charles Ringer for assessor, an organization has been perfected of over 500 prominent real estate men and the following officers have been chosen to conduct a campaign up to the primaries:

President, Joseph K. Brittain.

Vice president, Robert E. L. Brooks.

Secretary, Albert Wahl.

Treasurer, Arthur W. Draper.

The finance committee is headed by Arthur B. Hall of Hall & Ellis and former secretary of the Chicago Real Estate Board.

Board of Review, to fill vacancy. He is a business man, fully equipped by character and experience to perform the duties of a member of the Board of Review. He was born in Gallatin, Missouri, 1872, and educated in the public schools of that city. He came to Chicago in 1888 and now resides at 632 Addison street. He has been a member of the Board of Trade in the grain business for 25 years. Mr. O'Neill belongs to a number of social and fraternal organizations, among them are: The B. P. O. E. No. 4; Royal League; National Union; North American Union; Ashlar A. F. and A. M.; No. 308 Oriental Consistory; Apollo Commandery No. 1; Medinah Temple and the Ridgemoor Golf club. It is important to note that women can vote for this office.

The city collector's office was swamped. The county treasurer, as county collector, refused to accept the books at the late day they were tendered him.

Hence there will be no tax sale for city special assessments this year. Which is only just to the taxpayers.

Taxpayers who want to pay their taxes are loud in their complaints against the city collector's office.

Until this year taxpayers had an opportunity of paying their special assessment taxes at the same time and place that they paid their state county and city taxes—at the county collector's office.

But the law was juggled for the benefit of some one in the city hall and when taxpayers went to the county collector's office they were told they would have to pay their special assessments at the city hall.

Many taxpayers getting this information went to the city hall the last week in July to pay their special assessments.

They were told there that they would have to go back to the county treasurer or county collector to pay them.
